

Richard Napier
Managing Director, GFMS Mining & Exploration Consulting Ltd

Richard has a PhD in Economic Geology and fifteen years experience in a broad variety of projects and positions across the globe in the mining and exploration sector, as a geologist, researcher, exploration consultant, marketer and manager.

Since taking the position of managing director at GFMS Mining & Exploration Consulting, Richard has generated and overseen mining sector research for several blue chip investment funds and banks, upstream exploration and target generation for mining companies, and project finance advisory services with particular focus in Russia and China.